SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

James Pon Memorial Award 2022
Scholarship Opportunity – Short Video Contest
The Foundation to Commemorate the Chinese Railroad Workers in Canada
FCCRWC

1. Short Video Contest

The Foundation to Commemorate the Chinese Railroad Workers in Canada (hereinafter referred to as the “Foundation”) is a registered charitable organization. The goals of the foundation include promoting the understanding and awareness of the contribution to Canada by the Chinese Railroad Workers who participated in the construction of the first transcontinental railway (the CPR) that united Canada geographically and politically; promoting the awareness of the government's legislation of unjust Immigration Acts against the Chinese pioneers and their families; establishing scholarships; and sponsoring other Canadian charitable organizations to promote Chinese Canadian History.

Each year, during Asian Heritage Month in May the Foundation will announce its annual James Pon Memorial Award Scholarship opportunity that is intended to promote a deeper understanding of Chinese Canadian history (about the Chinese contribution to the building of the railroad) and offer a cash award to the top three short videos (4 minutes or shorter) received annually for this scholarship contest. For more information, please visit The Ties That Bind and follow the Submission Guidelines described further below.
